

Breast Screening Awareness March 2013

DOSTI group overcoming a taboo subject in the community.

Breast Screening Awareness session delivered by a community nurse.

Family support team from the centre was at hand to provide bi-lingual support. The informal environment allowed the ladies to open up and share their stories.

Great opportunity for the ladies to ask questions to remove any myths and fears around attending screening sessions.

